The image shows a software interface for stage design, titled "FrontSeat". At the top is a browser-like address bar with "https://" and a search icon. Below this is a header bar with a "Hamlet" icon and name, and a menu with "Production", "Edit", and "View" options. The main workspace is divided into three sections. On the left is a sidebar with a tree view showing "Act I" and "Scene 1". Below "Scene 1" are three small thumbnail images, each showing a rectangular area with a diagonal cross and a central label "B1". The middle section is a large rectangular area with a diagonal cross and a central label "B1". On the right is a "Notes" panel with the text "Notes" and "Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed do eiusmod".

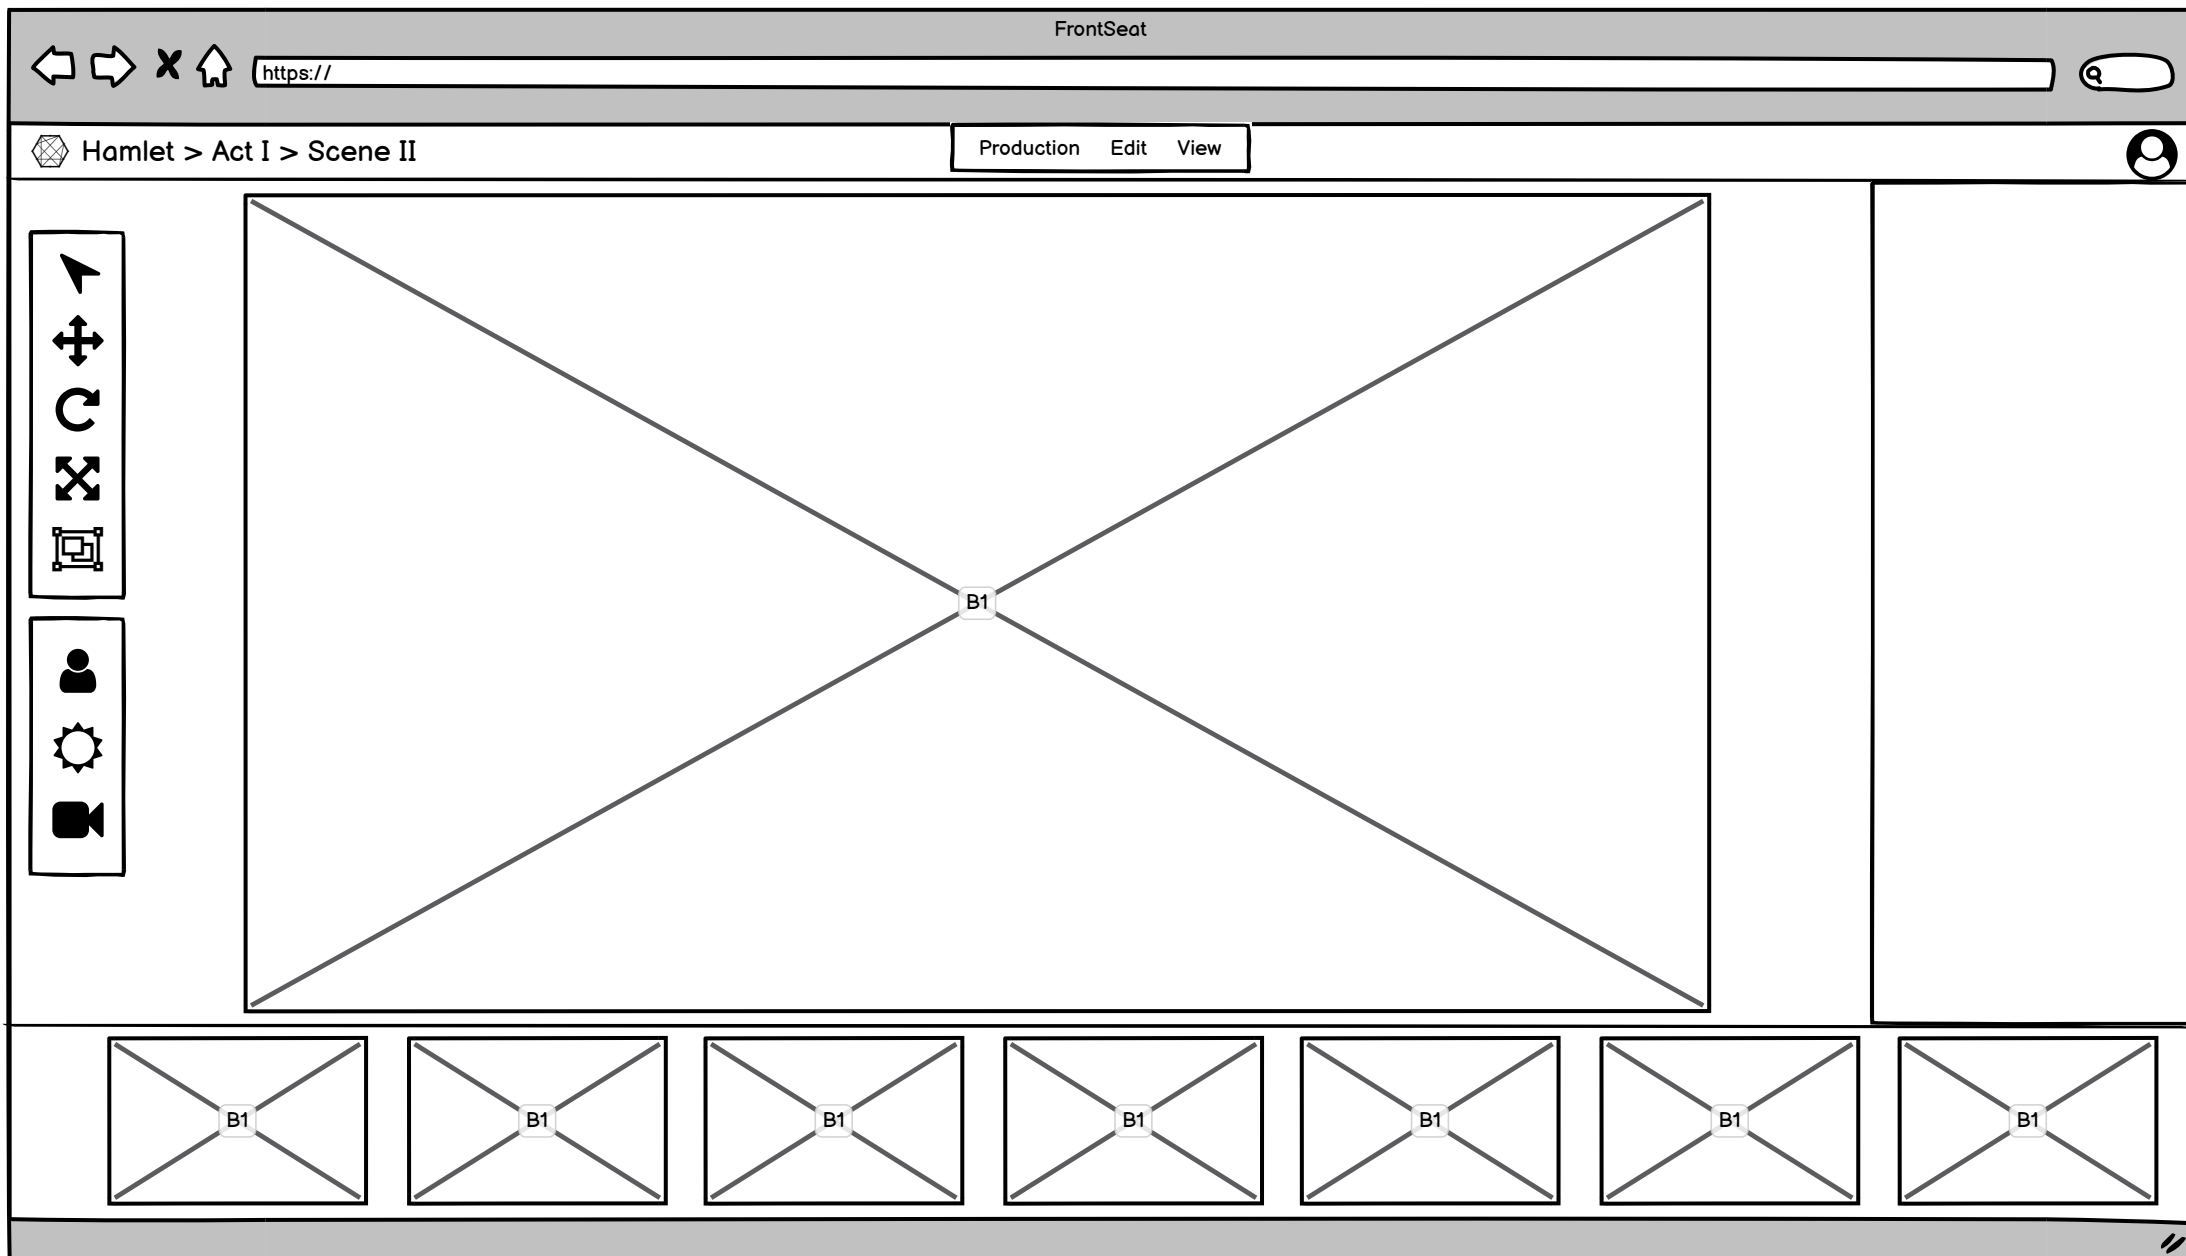

The screenshot displays the FrontSeat software interface, which is used for creating storyboards. The interface is divided into several sections:

- Top Bar: Contains navigation icons (back, forward, home, etc.), a URL bar showing "https://", and the application name "FrontSeat".
- Project Bar: Shows the project name "Hamlet" and tabs for "Production", "Edit", and "View".
- Left Panel: A sidebar for organizing the storyboard. It includes a "Scene 1" section with three storyboard thumbnails, each labeled "B1". Below this is a "Scene 2" section with one "B1" thumbnail.
- Main Canvas: A large central area displaying a single storyboard thumbnail labeled "B1". The thumbnail shows a rectangular frame with two diagonal lines crossing at the center, forming an 'X' shape.
- Right Panel: A "Selected Object" panel. It shows the "Position" of the selected object with "x" and "y" coordinates (120 and 532 respectively). Below this, there is a "Color" section with a blue color swatch.

The screenshot displays the FrontSeat software interface, which is used for creating and editing storyboards. The interface is divided into several sections:

- Top Bar: Contains navigation icons (back, forward, close, home) and a URL bar showing "https://".
- Project Name: The project is named "Hamlet".
- Mode Selection: Three tabs are visible: "Production", "Edit" (which is currently selected), and "View".
- Toolbox: A horizontal row of icons for various tools, including a selection tool, a move tool, a copy tool, a delete tool, a zoom tool, and a reset tool.
- Storyboard Canvas: The central area where the storyboard is created. It shows a large rectangle with a diagonal cross, and a small square labeled "B1" is positioned at the center of the cross.
- Left Panel: A vertical list of storyboard elements. It is organized into two sections: "Act I" and "Scene 2". Under "Act I", there are three storyboard elements, each represented by a rectangle with a diagonal cross and a small square labeled "B1". Under "Scene 2", there is one such storyboard element.
- Right Panel: A panel for the "Selected Object". It displays the position of the selected object (x: 120, y: 532) and a color selection tool (a blue square).
